To obtain and manage the necessary finances, personnel, and equipment for the benefit of the sport of Ultimate;

To organize, promote and develop interest and participation in Ultimate;

To seek support from and work cooperatively with other organizations, groups and individuals, whose aims or objectives are consistent with those of the Association, to promote the sport of Ultimate;

To provide opportunities for all individuals and to encourage and promote proficiency and excellence in all aspects of Ultimate; and

To seek and accept donations, gifts, legacies and bequests for the purpose of furthering its objectives.

1.05 Head Office

The head office of the association shall be located in the City of Ottawa in the Province of Ontario.

1.06 Interpretation

Except as provided in the Act, the Board will have the authority to interpret any provision of these by-laws that is contradictory, ambiguous, or unclear, provided such interpretation is consistent with the Statement of Purpose of the Association.

In the interpretation of this by-law, words in the singular include the plural and vice-versa, word in one gender include all genders, and "person" includes an individual, body corporate, partnership, trust and unincorporated organization.

1.07 Roberts Rules

Unless otherwise specified in the Act or these by-laws, meetings of Members shall be conducted according to Roberts Rules of Order (current edition), or such other rules of order as the meeting may determine by resolution.

SECTION 2 - Membership

2.01 Membership Conditions

Subject to the articles, there shall be one class of members in the Association. Membership in the Association shall be available only to individuals interested in furthering the Association's purposes.

Membership shall be open to any individual who applies to the Association, pays annual membership dues according to the fee structure as determined by the Board, and fulfils such annual registration requirements as are determined from time to time by the Board.

Individual members under the age of 16 shall be represented by a parent or guardian who shall have a vote in members meetings for each member he or she represents and is not required to be a member themselves. A parent or guardian who votes on behalf of members under the age of 16 may cast votes by any means allowed under the Act and these by-laws, including absentee voting or by proxy. A parent or guardian who votes on behalf of members under the age of 16 will have the maximum number of proxies they hold reduced by the number of members under the age of 16 for whom they are casting a vote.

2.02 Discipline of Members

The Board may make policies and procedures relating to discipline of members, and will have the authority to discipline members in accordance with such policies and procedures, including the suspension or expulsion of members. Suspension or expulsion of a member must be ratified by a 2/3 vote of the Board and the member in question shall have the right to be heard at such a meeting.

SECTION 3 - Board of Directors

3.01 Number of Directors

The Association shall be governed by the Board of Directors, which shall consist of 7 individuals.

3.01.01 Gender Diversity

A minimum of two of the seven Directors must identify as womxn and a minimum of two of the seven Directors must identify as men.

3.02 Election of Directors

Directors shall be elected by the Members at the Annual General Meeting of Members from a list of qualified candidates for Directors. If there are an equal number of candidates as there are vacancies, the candidates shall be acclaimed to the vacant positions. Each member attending in person or by proxy shall have such number of votes as there are positions to be filled. Any member may cast only one vote per candidate. The candidate or candidates having the largest number of votes for the positions available shall be elected as directors.

3.03 Qualifications

A Director must be 18 years of age or older and have the following qualifications:

- a) Be a member of the Association in good standing;
- b) Reside in the National Capital Region; and
- c) Not be an undischarged bankrupt.

A Director shall cease automatically to be a director upon no longer holding any one or more of these qualifications.

3.04 Nominating Directors

Prospective candidates will be nominated by the Nominations Committee or by the Membership.

3.04.01 Nominations Committee

The Board will appoint a nominations committee which is charged with identifying accomplished candidates for each available position. Nominations shall be in writing and shall bear the signatures of the nominee and the chair of the Nominations Committee. Candidates nominated by the nominations committee will be designated "Nominated by the Nominations Committee" in the Association's published election material. The nominations committee shall finalize its nominations no later than 45 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting.

3.04.02 Nominations from Membership

A candidate for director of the Association may be nominated by the members. General nominations, in writing, shall bear the signatures of the delegates of twenty-five members, and must be received by the Association no later than 30 days before the meeting date.

3.05 Director Term

The three candidates receiving the most votes shall serve for a two-year term that shall commence on the day following the Annual General Meeting in which they are elected. Other elected Directors shall serve a one-year term that shall commence on the day following the Annual General Meeting in which they are elected. In the event of a tie or if the election is uncontested such that it is indeterminate which candidate is the recipient of the one year term, then the one year term shall be determined by lot amongst the indeterminate candidates.

3.06 Fiduciary Duty

All Directors shall act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the Association.

3.07 Policy Manual

The Board shall maintain a policy manual, outlining policies and operating procedures that would not normally be contained in the by-laws. Nothing contained in the Policy Manual may supersede the authority of the by-laws.

3.08 Remuneration

No Director shall be remunerated for their services, but shall be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily and reasonably incurred while engaged in the affairs of the Association.

3.09 Removal of Directors

In accordance with section 130 of the Act, the members of the Association may by ordinary resolution at a members meeting remove any director or directors from office.

A Director may resign by sending a letter to all Directors indicating his or her intent to resign.

3.10 Vacancy

Should there be a vacancy on the Board of Directors, the remaining Directors may appoint a member of the Association to serve in the position of Director until the next Annual General Meeting, in accordance with section 128(8) of the Act.

SECTION 4 – Finance

4.01 Borrowing Power

The Board of Directors may borrow money upon the credit of the Association to pursue projects which are capital in nature or to meet any other needs the Board of Directors deems necessary as long as the Association's total indebtedness does not exceed $300,000.

4.02 Annual Financial Statements

The members will appoint an auditor to review or audit the accounts of the Association and make a report to members at the annual meeting. The auditor may not be a director, officer, or employee of the Association.

4.03 Financial Year

The financial year of the Corporation shall be determined by the board of directors.

4.04 UPI Property

- a) The Association shall not sell, sever, transfer, or convey, in any manner whatsoever, all or any part of the property located at 1295 Manotick Station Road, without the approval of the membership of the Association, by special resolution, at a duly constituted meeting of members.

- b) In order for a resolution to satisfy the requirements of section 4.04(a), the members must be provided, during the notice period for the meeting at which the resolution will be voted upon, reasonably sufficient information about the proposed transaction so the members may make an informed decision about the resolution, such information to include: the identity of the purchaser; the sale price; and the proposed use of the property after the closing of the transaction.
- c) A special resolution of the members that is passed in accordance with this section 4.04 shall expire 120 days after it is passed. For greater certainty, if the transaction approved by such special resolution fails to close within 120 days from the date of the resolution, the Association must seek fresh member approval in accordance with this section 4.04.
- d) Notwithstanding the provisions of this by-law and the Act, the directors may not amend or repeal this section 4.04 by resolution. For greater certainty, the powers of the members of the Association to amend or repeal this section 4.04 are not affected by the foregoing sentence.”

SECTION 5 – Members Meetings

5.01 Annual Meeting

The Association shall hold an Annual General Meeting each year at a place in the National Capital Region as arranged by the Board of Directors. The Annual General Meeting must be held within six months of end of the Association’s preceding financial year, in accordance with s. 160 of the Act and s. 61(2) of the Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Regulations, SOR/2011-223.

5.02 Attendance

The only persons entitled to be present at a meeting of members shall be those entitled to vote at the meeting, the Directors, the public accountant of the Association, and such other persons who are entitled or required to be present by the Act, articles or by-laws of the Association. Any other person may be admitted only on the invitation of the Board or by ordinary resolution of the members.

5.03 Chairperson of the Meeting

The Chair of the Board of Directors will chair all meetings of members. In the event that the Chair of the Board of Directors is absent, the members who are present and entitled to vote at the meeting shall choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

5.04 Special Meeting

In accordance with section 160(3) of the Act, the Directors may at any time call a special meeting of members.

In accordance with section 167 of the Act, members may requisition the Directors to call a special meeting of the Association for the purposes stated in the requisition. The requisition shall bear the signature of a minimum of 2% of the members eligible to vote. Upon receiving a proper requisition, the Directors shall, in accordance with section 167(3) of the Act, call a meeting of members to transact the business stated in the requisition.

5.05 Record Date

The record date for any meeting of members will be determined in accordance with section 161 of the Act.

5.06 Quorum

If there are more than 4000 members eligible to vote, the presence, in person or in proxy, of 2% of members eligible to vote shall constitute a quorum.

If there are fewer than 4000 but more than 200 members eligible to vote, a quorum for a meeting shall be 80 members attending in person or by proxy.

If there are fewer than 200 members eligible to vote, a quorum for a meeting shall be 40% of such members.

If quorum is not met at an Annual General Meeting, the Board of Directors shall schedule and announce to members a replacement meeting to take place between 14 and 21 days from the date of the Annual General Meeting it replaces. Quorum at a replacement meeting shall be the number of members present and eligible to vote at the replacement meeting.

5.07 Voting by Proxy

A member eligible to vote may proxy his or her vote to any member eligible to attend the meeting. No one person may hold more than five proxy votes at one meeting.

5.08 Notice

Notice shall be given not less than 21 days and not more than 60 days before any annual or special meeting of members. Notice shall be given by e-mail to the member and by public posting on the Association website and in the Association newsletter.

Notice of any meeting where special business will be transacted shall contain sufficient information to permit the member to form a reasoned judgment on the decision to be taken.

Notice of each meeting of members must remind the member that he or she may vote by proxy.

5.09 Electronic Meetings

A meeting of members may be held by means of telephone, electronic, or other communication facility as determined by the Board that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting, if the Association makes available such a communication facility. A person so participating in a meeting is deemed to be present at the meeting.

5.10 Absentee Ballots

For the purposes of the election of the Board of Directors under Paragraph 3.02, members are eligible to cast an absentee ballot for that election.

The absentee ballot shall be in a form provided to the members no less than seven (7) days in advance of the AGM. The absentee ballot form must list all candidates for director of the Association who have been nominated in accordance with Paragraph 3.04 and the instructions for submitting the absentee ballot.

Members may only submit an absentee ballot by clearly indicating on the absentee ballot form which of the nominated candidates they vote for and submitting the absentee ballot in the manner prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Members who submit an absentee ballot and then attend the Annual General Meeting will have their absentee ballot destroyed.

SECTION 6 – Directors Meetings

6.01 Meetings

The Board of Directors may meet at such time and at such place as the Directors may from time to time decide.

6.02 Quorum

Quorum for meetings of the Board of Directors shall be 4.

6.03 Notice

At least 7 days notice of the time and place for the Directors meeting shall be provided to each Director. Notice shall be given through e-mail or other communication means.

6.04 Electronic Meetings

The Directors of the Association may meet by teleconference provided that a majority of the Directors consent to meeting by teleconference, or if meetings by teleconference have been previously approved by a resolution passed by the Board of Directors.

The Directors of the Association may meet by other electronic means that permits each Director to communicate adequately with each other, provided that:

- a) the Board of Directors of the Association has passed a resolution addressing the mechanics of holding such a meeting and dealing specifically with the procedure for establishing a quorum and recording votes;
- b) each Director has equal access to the specific means of communication to be used;
- c) each Director has consented in advance to meeting by electronic means using the specific means of communication proposed for the meeting.

SECTION 7 – Officers

7.01 Descriptions

The job descriptions of the officers of the Association are elaborated in the Policy Manual.

7.02 Chair

The Chair of the Board is appointed by the Board of Directors and serves at its pleasure. The Chair may be removed from office at any time by a majority vote of the Board provided that a majority of the members of the Board of Directors favour such an action.

7.03 REMOVED

7.04 Treasurer

The Treasurer is appointed by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall report to the Board of Directors. The Treasurer may be removed from office at any time by a vote of the Board.

The Treasurer shall ensure the proper care and custody of all funds of the Association, subject only to the limitations of these by-laws and decisions made by the Board of Directors.

The Treasurer shall not be insolvent (bankrupt) as an individual, nor can the Treasurer have been convicted of fraud.

7.05 Secretary

The Secretary is appointed by the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall report to the Board of Directors. The Secretary may be removed from office at any time by a vote of the Board.

The Secretary shall ensure that the minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors are prepared and published.

7.06 Other Officers or Agents

The Board of Directors may from time to time appoint such other officers and agents as it shall deem necessary who shall have such authority and shall perform such duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

7.07 General

The same person may not serve in more than one Officer position at any given time.

All Officers of the Association shall act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the Association.

Officers shall be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily and reasonably incurred while engaged in the affairs of the Association.

Remuneration for officers, if any, will be at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 8 – Indemnification

The Association will indemnify and hold harmless out of the funds of the Association each Director and Officer, their heirs, executors and administrators from and against any and all claims, demands, actions or costs which may arise or be incurred as a result of occupying the position or performing the duties of a Director or Officer.

The Association will not indemnify a Director or Officer or any other person for acts of fraud, dishonesty, or bad faith.

The Association will, at all times, maintain in force such Directors and Officers liability insurance as may be approved by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 9 – Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the Association, any funds or assets remaining after paying all debts will be distributed to an incorporated non-profit Canadian organization as determined by the Board and ratified by two-thirds of members eligible to vote at a meeting of members.

SECTION 10 – Amendments

10.1 Amendments by Members

Amendments to the by-laws may be made by special resolution at any meeting of members. Such amendments shall be filed with Industry Canada as required by the Act.

Any member entitled to vote at the meeting may propose an amendment.

10.2 Amendments by Directors

In accordance with s. 152 of the Act, the Directors may, by resolution, make, amend or repeal any by-laws that regulate the activities or affairs of the corporation, except in respect of matters referred to in subsection 197(1) of the Act. The Directors shall submit the by-law, amendment or repeal to the members at the next meeting of members, and the members may, by ordinary resolution, confirm, reject or amend the by-law, amendment or repeal. The by-law, amendment or repeal is effective from the date of the resolution of the Directors. If the by-law, amendment or repeal is confirmed, or confirmed as amended, by the members it remains effective in the form in which it was confirmed.

SECTION 11 – Dispute Resolution

11.01 Mediation and Arbitration

Disputes or controversies among members, directors, officers, committee members, or volunteers of the Association are as much as possible to be resolved in accordance with mediation and/or arbitration as provided in Section 11 of this by-law.

11.02 Dispute Resolution Mechanism

In the event that a dispute or controversy among members, directors, officers, committee members or volunteers of the Association arising out of or related to the articles or by-laws, or out of any aspect of the operations of the Association is not resolved in private meetings between the parties, then without prejudice to or in any way derogating from the rights of the members, directors, officers, committee members, employees or volunteers of the Association as set out in the articles, by-laws or the Act, and as an alternative to such person instituting a law suit or legal action, such dispute or controversy shall be settled by a process of dispute resolution as follows:

- a) The dispute or controversy shall first be submitted to a panel of mediators whereby the one party appoints one mediator, the other party (or if applicable the board of the Association) appoints one mediator, and the two mediators so appointed jointly a third mediator. The three mediators will then meet with the parties in question in an attempt to mediate a resolution between the parties.
- b) The number of mediators may be reduced from three to one or two upon agreement of the parties.
- c) If the parties are not successful in resolving the dispute through mediation, then the parties agree that the dispute shall be settled by arbitration before a single arbitrator, who shall not be any one of the mediators referred to above, in accordance with Ontario legislation. The parties agree that all proceedings relating to arbitration shall be final and binding and shall not be subject to appeal on a question of fact, law or mixed fact and law.
- d) All costs of the mediators appointed in accordance with this section shall be borne equally by the parties to the dispute or the controversy. All costs of the arbitrators appointed in accordance with this section shall be borne by such parties as may be determined by the arbitrators.

SECTION 12 – Footnotes

For the purposes of these by-laws the following fractions are defined:

Two-thirds of 7 shall mean 5

Two-thirds of 6 shall mean 4

Two-thirds of 5 shall mean 4

Two-thirds of 4 shall mean 3
